Emphasis on Fun and Improvement

The staff at Harvard Hoops is proud to present an exciting week of basketball for boys and girls who will be in the fifth through eighth grades in Fall of 2020. We cater to basketball abilities of all levels, from the beginning to the advance player. The staff looks forward to presenting an action-filled week of basketball for all participants. We will focus on improving the fundamentals of basketball, and the importance of playing as a team while having a great time!

Refund Policy:

Tuition is non-refundable. Checks will be returned only if class is cancelled.

Register early! Don't miss out!

Maximum: 20 players

- Instruction in basketball fundamentals by our teaching staff. Our low player/coach ratio ensures maximum staff attention.
- Games are played each day, players are grouped by age and playing experience.
- Skill stations each day emphasize fundamentals needed to succeed in basketball. Special focus is given to improving shooting skills.
- An ice cream/popsicle treat is provided each day.
- Bring your lunch Monday-Thursday, pizza will be provided on Friday.

Important Information

Harvard Hoops! Provides participants with a safe and enjoyable environment. However, basketball is a contact sport. HARVARD COMMUNITY EDUCATION, HARVARD HOOPS!, SPECTRUM, and the Harvard Public Schools are not responsible for injuries incurred by players or for any articles lost during the program.

Coach Katie Greene has been coaching at Bromfield since the Fall of 2014. She has coached Basketball, Lacrosse and Soccer at the JV and Varsity levels. She was coach of the year for the Mid-Wach D league for the 2017 Girls Varsity Soccer season. Katie was a three sport athlete in high school and competed at the Collegiate level at Fitchburg State University on the Women's Soccer Team. She has a passion for basketball and teaching young athletes the importance of teamwork, good sportsmanship and the core fundamentals of the game.
