

TUTORING FOR PAY

Definition: "Tutoring" means giving private instruction or help to an individual or group for which the teacher receives remuneration other than through the School Committee.

It is not the role of the student's individual teacher to unilaterally recommend tutoring. If tutoring seems advisable, the Building Principal may give the parents a list of persons who are willing to tutor. This list may include teachers, but not the student's teacher of the subject in which he/she is to be tutored.

Tutoring for pay is not to be done in the school building unless exception is granted by the Superintendent.

The School Committee recognizes the need for paid tutors in the schools who give home instruction and specialized instruction to children with special needs. These tutors are paid for by the district.
